Dahlias
and Gladiolus
1922

D. W. PECKHAM,
MIDDLEFIELD
CONNECTICUT
To my Friends, and Customers

GREETINGS.

It gives me great pleasure to again present you with my 1922 catalogue, which contains many new, and up to date varieties of Gladiolus, and Dahlias.

I have listed a large number of California Dahlias, and any one of them deserve a place in your Garden. I cannot praise the California Dahlias too highly, size, colorings stems, and profuse bloomers, they are truly wonderful.

The Dahlia, and Gladiolus are two wonderful Flowers, and are being greatly improved every year, by our hybridizers, easy to grow, require no great amount of care, and give us a continuation of blooms from early summer until frost.

I hope to be able to show you the coming summer, more Dahlias, from California, and new Gladiolus which should surpass those you have already seen.

I extend an invitation to all lovers of flowers, to visit my Garden, during the blooming season, and we will gladly show, and tell you all we can about them.

Thanking those who gave me orders last Summer, and trusting you may find other varieties in this list, which will appeal to you.

D. W. Peckham

Middlefield, Conn.
The descriptions contained herein are given to the best of my ability, but we must make certain allowances for variations, caused by different soil, and climatic conditions.

I guarantee my stock to be true to name, and to have at least one living eye, when shipped, and anything found otherwise, will be gladly replaced, money refunded, or stock furnished to the amount of that untrue, but in no case will I be liable for a sum greater than the purchase price.

Goods when received should be unpacked promptly, and put in a cool place. Dahlias, if received before you are ready to plant, should be covered with dry earth, or sand.

Satisfaction is my best asset. Don't be afraid to write me, if your shipment is not as represented.

I would be pleased to receive your order early and if convenient, send me a small deposit, and I will notify you when the goods are ready. This insures your getting what you want, as late orders often have to be returned, when my stock commences to get low.

Shipments start, Gladiolus, anytime after April 1st, Dahlias, about May 1st, small orders Parcel Post, prepaid and large ones Express, collect.

I will not substitute unless you so specify.
DAHLIAS

The growing of Dahlias, and Gladiolus.

DAHLIAS. May be planted from May 15th, to June 15th, in a sunny location, away from roots of trees, or shrubs, in a light, or sandy soil. (if your ground is heavy, mix one third coal ashes) 5 or 6 inches deep, and 3 or 4 feet apart, lay the tuber flat in the hill, eye up cover carefully, with an inch, or so of soil, then a handful of well rotted manure, bone meal, or pulverized Sheep manure, being careful not to let fertilizer come in contact with the tuber (especially the eye) fill in with soil, to within about an inch from level after the plant is, 5 or 6 inches high, fill in even. Strong stakes at least 5 feet long should be used to support the plant, (I drive the stakes before planting). Now the most important of all is to keep your ground well cultivated, free from weeds, and never allow it to harden, or bake;—Work a little fertilizer; around the plant once in a while, during the blooming season, and about the last week in August, an application of liquid manure will benefit your flowers greatly; keep the blooms cut, and if you want large flowers, disbud freely, this seems rather hard treatment, but it is necessary to have good flowers. After the frost has killed the tops, cut the stalk off about one inch from the ground, and dig carefully, turn the clump bottom side up and allow it to dry off in the sun, for four, or five hours, be careful, not to break off the tubers from the stalk as they are worthless, if detached, as the eyes start from the stalk, and not the tubers. the following Spring; store in a cellar, where you would keep Potatoes, and cover with papers to keep from drying up.

GLADIOLUS. Are even more easily to grow, and less care than the Dahlia, and may be planted, any time, after danger of freezing is over, and will bloom in from 75 to 90 days from planting; I find do well in most any soil, but best in light, or somewhat sandy conditions. planted, 4 or 5 inches deep, about 3 inches apart. I use bone meal, but you will get good results from any commercial fertilizer; Manure from the animal is apt to make your bulbs scabby, unless, put on the ground, and spaded, or ploughed in the Fall previous, this is really all the care they need, other than to keep them well cultivated; If you want them for inside, cut the spike, as soon as it shows color, change the water every day and you have a flower, that will last a week. In cutting your spikes, always leave at least 3 leaves, with the bulb, (and its better to leave 4 or 5) to feed on, dig any time after frost, I prefer about Oct. 15th, and let dry in sun for five, or six hours, then cut off the foliage close to the bulb, and in about two weeks break off the old corm, which forms on the bottom, and save the little fellows, to plant another year, this leaves your bulb clean, store away in the cellar in boxes, or baskets, and keep from freezing.
